- Program Cancellation
 - If International Preparatory School cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, International Preparatory School will refund all monies paid by the student.

- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show
 - Except under the circumstance identified in #4, if an applicant accepted by International Preparatory School cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), International Preparatory School will refund all monies paid, less any actual housing costs and non-refundable charges, including registration fee, courier fees, and travel cancellation insurance.

- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show
 - If an applicant accepted by International Preparatory School enters the United States and cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no shows), International Preparatory School will retain:
 - For an enrollment period of fewer than 15 weeks, all the tuition charges for up to four weeks of the first term, any actual housing costs, non-refundable charges, including registration fee and courier fees.
 - For an enrollment period of 15 weeks or more, all the tuition charges for up to six weeks of the first term, any actual housing costs, non-refundable charges, including registration fee and courier fees.

- Withdrawal or Termination After Start of Class
 - Refund amounts will be calculated on a student's last date of attendance (LDA). International Preparatory School will consider a partial week the same as if a whole week were completed, provided the student was present at least one day during the scheduled week.

- First Period of Financial Obligation
 - For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial period of financial obligation, International Preparatory School will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks.
 - For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the first four weeks but before or at the mid-point of their period of financial obligation, International Preparatory School will retain a prorated amount of tuition.
 - For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the midpoint; International Preparatory School will retain all the charges for that period. International Preparatory School will refund in full any tuition paid for the balance of the program.

- Subsequent Periods of Financial Obligation or Enrollment periods
 - Who have completed the first period of financial obligation or extended their enrollment at International Preparatory School; whose last date of attendance occurs before or at the midpoint of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution will retain a prorated amount of tuition for that period.
 - Whose last date of attendance occurs after the midpoint of any subsequent period of financial obligation, International Preparatory School will retain all the tuition for that period. International Preparatory School will refund in full any tuition paid for the balance of the program.

- Refund Procedure
 - International Preparatory School accepts written notification of withdrawal in writing, via phone, electronic mail, and/or notification in person.
 - Once the refund amount is calculated, the school will contact the students to sign the form and receives their refund check.
 - Checks will be issued for all refunds.
 - Refunds will be put back on original credit card.
 - As stated on the refund form, the student is reminded that they will receive the refund within thirty (30) days following the date of determination, and they will be notified when the check is ready. The date of determination is the date the student gives notice of withdrawal to the institution or the date the institution terminates the student due to the student's failure to adhere to the institution's attendance, conduct, or student progress policy.
